

Multiple opportunities for healing

We continue to see miracles and hear testimonies of people healed through simply sitting and being soaked in God's loving presence.

There are many Dwelling Place volunteers (wearing name badges), praying from a distance or walking around the room, praying and briefly laying hands on your shoulders.

We will also have prayer teams up front towards the end of the night for anyone to receive a short prayer / blessing.

If you would like to receive prayer in a more private setting, please fill out form (available on clipboards at the back of the church) and we will escort you to the next available prayer team.

If you have questions or would like to schedule a time for a more extended time of healing prayer, please see one of the volunteers or email: DwellingPlace@wwccr.org

Encountering God through “soaking prayer”

Our Heavenly Father desires communion with His children. His Holy Spirit is moving, inviting us to pursue Him like never before – to experience a closer intimacy with God and experience His love for us.

“You will show me the way of life, granting me the joy of your presence and the pleasures of living with you forever.” (Psalm 16:11, NLT)

As we sit quietly and rest in the presence of Jesus, we are able to “soak” in the living water that is the Holy Spirit. (Jn 7:38-39) This “soaking prayer” is an encounter with God that frequently results in greater awareness of His love, in renewal of our faith, and in healing areas of brokenness in our lives.

Soaking Prayer—Simple steps:

- Find a comfortable place to sit.
- Allow your thoughts to quiet down (don't fight them).
- Invite the Holy Spirit to pour over you and soak you in His presence.
- Offer your whole self - mind, body and soul – in surrender to the Holy Spirit.
- Focus on the Lord's presence within you and around you.
- Rest in faith, believing He is working in you.
- Take as much time as you can. Get up refreshed and full of the Holy Spirit. Watch as God transforms you and the world around you.

Common experiences

During these times, you may feel the weight of His presence hovering over you, touching you. The more you soak in His presence, the more encounters you will have, the closer you come to the Lover of your soul.

It is not uncommon for people to weep; feel sensations of joy and overwhelming outpourings of love; feel increased energy and revitalization; recall certain scriptures; or simply fall asleep. All are valid experiences based on their individual need. Soaking Prayer is an adventure that takes you deep into the realm of God's heart – a place of communion where two devoted hearts, yours and His, meet.

Staying Free and Healed

Please continue coming to Healing Nights and bringing others that seek healing and time to encounter God.

We humbly offer these suggestions for staying healed and/or continued healing:

- Continue to give thanks and praise for any amount of healing.
- Seek the sacraments: attend Sunday mass, (more if possible), reconciliation at least once a month.
- Consider increasing your prayer time; How much priority do you give God compared to worldly concerns?
- Bible study; How much time do you spend reflecting on God's word?
- Consider your relationships and being in community with other Christians. Are there volunteer opportunities at your church or parish that may be a way to meet and serve?
