Seeking Fresh Fire

by Jean Beers

A testimony shared at the WWCCR Pentecost Celebration, June 8, 2014.

One of the things the Lord brought to mind today was that the Apostles and the community in Jerusalem received the power, the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, more than once. In preparing my testimony I remember the particular time when I prayed for the outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and that's just indelible in my mind. However, that wasn't the first time. The first time was probably my First Communion, when I fully believed that I was receiving Jesus in the Body of Christ. Then, as a teenager at my Sacrament of Confirmation, I knew I had received the Holy Spirit at that time. And there were other times when the Holy Spirit came upon me, and I know that you, too, may have these experiences, you can look back and see other times that the Holy Spirit has come upon you.

Forty-five years ago two friends sat around my kitchen table and prayed for me to receive the baptism in the Holy Spirit. That day is indelible in my memory because the Holy Spirit came to me in a new and powerful way. New because I was open to receive all the gifts of the Spirit, and powerful because He never left me and has rekindled that fire in me over and over.

“Through many dangers, toil and snares I have already come, tis grace that brought me safe thus far and grace will lead me home.” Much has happened in 45 years, and through it all the Holy Spirit has been right there leading me as he led Jesus, who is our model in faith.

One of the first results of receiving the Spirit in a new way was that I realized without a doubt that I was a child of God. I didn't hear audibly the Father say, “This is my beloved daughter,” as Jesus and others heard the Father say to him, “This is my beloved Son,” but in my spirit I heard that message.

Another result that the Spirit did for me was to immediately begin to free me from fear. Back in 1969 I had a full and good life: a happy marriage – most of the time – and five healthy and active children. I loved the Lord and tried to serve him, but I had a knot of anxiety in the pit of my stomach; I was fearful. The next day after the prayer with my friends, I took my coffee cup out to my small vegetable garden and spotted a snake! Any other day I would have been paralyzed with fear,

WWCCR VISION AND MISSION

Vision:

That all Catholics mature in a personal relationship with Jesus, empowered by the Holy Spirit, to the glory of God the Father.

Mission:

Our mission is to renew the face of the earth by nurturing and inspiring Catholics:

- ❖ To experience a personal relationship with Jesus Christ through baptism in the Holy Spirit
- ❖ To fan into flame the gifts we receive through the Sacraments
- ❖ To develop a deeper life of prayer and worship

but that morning I said, "You go ahead little snake and do your work." The Holy Spirit had begun to deal with my anxiety and fear.

And, like Jesus who was led into the desert after his Baptism, I was tested about being a child of God and receiving the gifts of the Spirit. The gift of tongues was still there the next day, but later I doubted that the two words in tongues were genuine. I called my friend who had prayed and she assured me that this was genuine and said more would come. For me, I only had two guttural words for six months but was finally able to release a whole language while I was listening to a tape of people praising the Lord. And I began to sing along with them, out loud, and a whole language came out of my mouth. There was something about speaking out loud that helped release the gift of tongues. (Cassette tapes were high tech in those days and we would pass them around to each other. This is one way the Renewal quickly spread throughout the country, by the sharing of taped teachings). The gift of tongues is the most useful tool, like the pots and pans in my kitchen; I use them every day, usually in my familiar prayer language and sometimes a brand new language for a particular need.

Another result of the outpouring of the Spirit was that the scriptures became my main source of knowledge of the Lord and my daily spiritual nourishment. Certain verses stayed with me to become my defense and source of courage when I was tested, and when I was seeking guidance and help. One of the scriptures that jumped out at me was, "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil and he will flee from you. Draw near to God and he will draw near to you." (James 4:7) One of my standbys is "Have no anxiety about anything but in everything by prayer, entreaty and with thanksgiving make your needs known to God. And the peace of God, which passes all understanding, will keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus."

(Phil 4:6-7) And Romans 12:1-2, a whole scripture study in itself, which includes, "Do not be conformed to this world but be transformed by the renewal of your mind." The scriptures gave me a new confidence because they were solid and true.

There were a number of changes in my life; there was a boldness and enthusiasm for Jesus, an excitement that He was really acting in people's lives. And again, I was less fearful and would take a stand for Christian values. But other testings did come. One time my husband, who was alarmed at the change in me, told me, "I will fight you with everything I have!" and I knew that those words were not only his but the enemy's. The Lord gave me courage but I was shaken. A few years later my husband too prayed for the baptism and began to pray in tongues. Towards the end of his life we prayed in tongues together and we also prayed the rosary together.

From the outset, the ministry of others has fortified me. I have benefited from the ministry of a group of nuns in Seattle, who prayed with my friends in 1969, the same ones who then told me about this new move of the Spirit. I was nurtured around the table of a dear Methodist lady in Langley who welcomed people from all denominations—I was the only Catholic at the time. I was strengthened from the new movement of Women's Aglow Fellowship. My family was helped through the ministry of Fr. Fulton and the Catholics at Blessed Sacrament

Church in Seattle. And, most importantly, I have been fortified from the ministry of Western Washington Catholic Charismatic Renewal, where I have received fresh fire through the conferences, the Healing Masses, teaching, and prayer ministry over many years continuing to this day. The National Service Committee of the Catholic Charismatic Renewal has blessed me for several years with the rich and encouraging articles in Pentecost Today magazine that I have been privileged to produce for them as a graphic artist. With every new issue those articles have challenged me to keep growing.

Prayer support is vital to me and prayer groups over the years have provided the personal fellowship that is unique in the Renewal. The Lord has renewed our prayer group in Langley several times over the years. I have also been blessed to pray with my children and grandchildren. One of the most dramatic occasions of family prayer took place when my husband Dick nearly died in 2003 from an aortic aneurysm. The doctors permitted our family to lay hands on him and some of us prayed in tongues over him as he lay there on life support. Several doctors and nurses told us it was a great blessing for them to see us pray for him. One of the doctors was a devout Catholic who shared his faith with me and later we even prayed the rosary together, he in Spanish, and me in English. Dick was in the intensive care unit for over six weeks but was finally able to return home.

The Holy Spirit always renews us and gave me a remarkable sign of renewal in 2009. Our little prayer group at St Hubert Church had dwindled down to three of us praying together when we were inspired to present a Life in the Spirit Seminar to our parish. It seemed like a huge project to me as Stewardship is a sacrificial act of love. When you give financially to WWCCR, you participate in bringing God’s healing love to Catholics throughout Western Washington. We love our neighbors just as Christ did, by spreading the good news of salvation through the grace of the Holy Spirit. Together we are strong. Together we can renew the face of the earth, empowered by the Holy Spirit, one soul at a time. Join us in praying that we receive hundreds of yellow envelopes in the next two months.

we prayed and organized over the summer. It had been especially hot in August and I was watering my flowers when I noticed one of the bamboo stakes had sprouted. There were the cutest bright green leaves sticking straight out from the middle of the stake. It was one of those skinny bamboo stakes painted green; it was old and had belonged to my father—who died in 1978! This was over 30 years later (I even showed the stake to Ciscoe Morris, a local TV gardening expert, who had never heard of it happening before). Talk about resurrection and renewal. I got the message; the Lord was renewing us. The seminar was a great success and the prayer group grew to 10 people who prayed on a regular basis and now, after another Holy Spirit Seminar, we have 15 to 20 people who meet weekly.

The Lord renews our strength over and over. There is always more! What new thing is he going to do tonight? Where will the fire break out among us? I know that I’m seeking fresh fire. Come, Holy Spirit! ♦

This is why the Pope’s next expectation is “to share with everyone in the Church the grace of baptism in the Holy Spirit (a phrase we find in the Acts of the Apostles).” This has been the prayer of so many of us and now we have the Pope speaking it in a very clear and specific way. I believe He is speaking from the heart of God. It is God’s will that each person experience the grace of baptism of Holy Spirit. I need you to help me to break down the walls of fear around the word “charismatic.” If you memorize our vision statement (see page 2), you can ask people if they want a closer relationship with Jesus. If they say yes, remind them that it is the Holy Spirit that leads us into deeper communion with the Lord. Being charismatic just means to love in the power of the Spirit. Practice presenting this to your friends and family. As the Holy Spirit leads, tell your friends that Pope Francis wants ALL Catholics to experience the grace of baptism in the Holy Spirit. We will be working hard to make this possible by offering opportunities for people to come and receive this powerful grace. We will need volunteers to make this happen, so pray about how you are being called to participate.

The third expectation is to “evangelize with the word of God, which proclaims that Jesus lives and that he loves all men and women.” In an earlier message he encouraged all of us to carry a small New Testament with us where ever we go. What a wonderful practice that could only lead to greater joy. There are beautiful words in scripture that tell us just how much God loves His children. Let us take the words of Pope Francis to heart and evangelize with the word of God. The Holy Spirit will lead us in different ways that will be perfect for each person.

Today is the day for salvation. Today is the day the Lord has made, let us rejoice and be glad in it. God bless you with His sweet love today! Sue+
